Dearest Darling,

Well, Sweetie. This is my first letter to you since you have gone back.

Didn't we have a wonderful time here? Just think. Sweetie, yesterday in this time you were with me. Oh Baby I can hardly wait till I come down there to be with you I didn't feel bad at all about your leaving.

Last night after we dropped you off at the station. We drove around by Lorain ave. and went into the big Sears store. Bill & Dolly did a bit of shopping and then we went home and on the way home Bill got very thirsty so we stopped at LaPort Inn and Bill had a beer and Dolly & I had a coke and then they took me home. They wanted me to sleep over but I would much rather sleep in my own little bed.

I told my boss I was quitting to-day and I guess he didn't like it very well. But I don't give a darn. You are more important to me than any old job. and boy do you have to go through a lot of red tape to get a release.

To-night we are all going to-gether. Sis, Dolly, Bill and I. I don't know where we are going but we shall have a good time.

Well, Baby dear, I'd better close because we are leaving.

all my love till I see you
your own,
Fink
